

Hello!

I'm pleased to present to you the submission forms for the 2010 Sacred Arts Festival. This is the fifth year of the festival, and I'm grateful that many of you receiving this have supported it with your work, time and energy since its inception.

The Sacred Arts Festival began under the auspices of St. Mark's Episcopal Church, without whose openness and encouragement the festival could not have happened, much less thrived, as it has. The festival, along with several others, including the Durango Bach Festival and Durango Chamber Music Festival, have moved to a new 501(c)(3) non-profit organization, 3rd Ave. Arts. The move will allow us to seek grants to grow the programs that would otherwise be unavailable to us.

Also under the new non-profit umbrella is the 3rd Ave. Corner Shop, located in the Parish Hall at St. Mark's. Another benefit of the festival's move to 3rd Ave. Arts is that participants in the Sacred Arts Festival can have their work (arts, crafts, CDs, poetry books, etc.) featured in the Corner Shop during the festival. If this is something that interests you, please email me at Scott@3rdAveArts.org or call me at (970) 247-1129, ext. 14.

There are two other festival events to which I'd like to personally invite you:

You Are Cordially Invited to a Benefit Preview Luncheon

Tuesday, September 21, 2010, 11:30 a.m.

The doors open at 11:30 a.m. at St. Mark's for a Gourmet Luncheon and a Preview of the ICON Exhibit with a keynote address by Judith Reynolds on The Sacred Landscape. Please join us! Tickets are $25 and benefit the Sacred Arts Festival. Seating is limited; please purchase your tickets online at www.SacredArtsFestival.com or call Cheryl at (970) 247-1129, extension 10.

Please Join Us for a Potluck and Roundtable Discussion

Thursday, September 23, 2010, 6:00 p.m.

Artists, poets, musicians and appreciators are all invited! Please bring a dish to share. RSVP to Cheryl or Scott, (970) 247-1129.

Please contact me with questions, ideas or for more information. I look forward to seeing you soon!
